HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

This has been a year of real progress and development in many fields.

The curriculum has evolved in the junior school, with many new opportunities being available to students. In the senior school the removal of "University-Entrance" has given possibilities of exciting change. The school has begun work on this new senior school structure.

Our School Calendar clearly shows the commitment our staff has, in providing educational opportunity in its widest sense, to all. The sportsfield, the mountain slopes, the rivers, theatres and debating chamber, have been places where students this year have succeeded in facing challenges. We have enjoyed national success in exams, in softball, athletics, hockey, canoeing, theatre and video. Our students have responded to the opportunity and challenge provided.

The opening of 'Te Whanau a Noa' has broken new educational ground in multi-cultural education in New Zealand. Not only has the community a wonderful facility, the school now has further opportunity to bring people closer together.

The quality of education, however, finally depends on how well a school is able to help students meet the real issues they meet daily. There are, here, many success stories.

Nineteen-eighty-five has been an exciting, challenging eventful year in the life of Tokoroa High School. To those leaving, we wish for you fulfilment, peace and happiness in your life. We know you have had the opportunity to be well prepared to face the world beyond this school.

FAREWELL . . .

So that Duty may recognise and Fealty paid,
A few words to those who leave I pen this day.
This is the Year's last scene; here the Department appoints
Many pedant's last mile; a career's span
Idly yet quickly runs apace,
Valedictories here I pen for beauteous forms
Of Aspects more sublime here to record
'Ere to dumb Forgetfulness they fall a prey;
Their names, after year, spelt by the unlettered Muse,
This page shall be their place of Fame and not Abuse.

Of Lichfield there did come a Clark,
A quiet man whose sense and silence were benefits,
Much to be desired amongst a noisome rabble.
In agriculture was he rich through deverse means;
A fecund finger had he used in many mystic ways
To delve the earth and measure crops,
To swell the gourd and plump the hazel shells.
(So pricks he Nature and her Heart engages).
A twinkle in his eye belied his sense of humus.
Round eyed the curls in his Domain stood
Rapt in attention, when with dexterity
His skill with hammer, rule, and chisel,
Split planks up and down and round the middle.
So many blessings bestowed in one is rare,
As when he pours the beakers full of ale,
And keeps a steely eye on those whose hands,
Whilst measuring, are prone to slip.

This Clark of Lichfield had a Wife full comely,
Her way of smiling was simple and never coy.
Her greatest Oath would put rash youth a'tremble.
She was not a day yet over Qwerty.
A Helpmeet strong and winsome,
As dextrous on the keys as any kitten
Frolicsome - her manners were well-taught withal.
She spoke directly to any thrall eye-ball to eye-ball.
This was her way, as firm of step and measured tread,
Through figures awkward, balances astray, she wended.
She was a Champ at Camp, I do recall,
A cordial bottle, full of Sherry, to last three nights
In one it went - of others' needs she was solicitous.

A reverent Pause for the Doyene of this School.
A Lady gracious, bold and most Sagacious.
The one to whom, those needful of advice and courage,
Do turn. For learned is she in the ways of dealing
With wiles and crooked ways.
She knows her hand and calls the tune
Above the wayward din of lesser folk.
She leaves us the less but memory will fill the gap.
"Do you remember an Inn,
Miranda?
Do you remember an Inn?"
So now with these cheers, no not jeers,
Of young Muleteer.
"Never more;
Miranda,
Never more."

All human things are subject to decay-
'Tis true - but to Youth and Zest
Let's fill our cup - Beauty shall no more be found
In 'B' block, in B2 sitting upon your desk,
Your fet a swinging far from the ground;
As you inform enraptured seniors of the pleasure
Of close kinship with Smile and Metaphor.
Beware the lowered eye and threatening voice extolling
Reluctant schoolboys with the perils of Zeugma and Litotes.
For her the wheel has come full circle -
Pupil, student, scholar, teacher,
(It's our reward to see how knowledge has been fostered)
She hears Time's winged Chariot hurrying near -
And so while the youthful hue sits on her skin,
Away to fresh woods and pastures new in Paddington.

Look back with Ruth through th'annals of the Year;
Who is it lost and gone amain and now so grieved?

A youngish Fellow there was of Brawn and Bone,
Of prodigious Energy in matters Geographic and Pedagogy.
He sat on Moots and with his mighty Mouth
Directions issued, and acted on; impressive was his Mein.
Upon his leaving took he his Girls and Wife
Away regrettably, forsooth this Goodwife a Paragon is
In making Home and Scholastic task a virtue in themselves.
Ah well - Alackaday - A Man's reach must exceed his grasp,
Or what's Reefton for?

Dull would our world of chalk and talk be without Exotica.
To far Coromandel a Damozel of many talents, and Trevor blest,
Leaving a place difficult to fill anew.
Great wits are sure to madness near allied,
A Senior Mistress or Woman ne'er should denied.

There are some others yet unsung,
Who quietly and demurely have played their part.
Farewell, adieu, drink life to the less.
All times have we enjoyed your various Gifts;
You all are now part of that we've met,
And all the better through that we've wrought.
God speed, and all the best; and leave us now
With thoughts that often lie too deep for tears.

SPEECH CONTEST

The skills of preparing and delivering a speech are important skills taught as part of the senior school's English prescriptions. Through the development of these skills, students gain confidence and a greater self-esteem as well as experience in researching and speech writing.

The speech contest is the culmination of this programme, and this year 16 students participated; one per English class.

Speakers set out to inform, entertain or persuade the audience and there was a wide variety of speaking styles and subject matter. A very high standard was set and the student audience was appreciative of the effort the contestants had put in.

BADMINTON

The Badminton Club this year was a major success with a very high membership. All players contributed to keep our club afloat. Tournaments that were held throughout the year were also great successes. Tokoroa won two out of the three which were played.

The club would not have continued, were it not for the help that teachers and students gave. We would especially like to thank Mr Greg Fenton who helped us without fuss and the committee - Jane Sullivan, Alistair Nestor, Edward Morris, Graham Shore and Brent Nilson.

Good luck for the Badminton Club next year.

SCHOOL COUNCIL

Twenty eight students drawn from every year group represented the student body as members of the School Council this year.

Over the year, this group developed skills of organisation, perseverance and initiative which more than compensated for the time they spent in Council meetings.

Tangible results of their efforts were seen in their Mufti-day organisation, their fund-raising School Social and their setting up of a Sports' Fund Trust.

Te Whanau a Noa

Kia hora te marino
Kia papa pounanui te moana
Kia tere te karohirohi

Tokoroa High School has a wealth of all cultures and, on the whole, so does the town of Tokoroa. Taking account of this, the very first Multi-Cultural Centre of its kind - Te Whanau a Noa - was opened in Tokoroa on March 30, 1985.

The centre, situated at the entrance of Tokoroa High School, welcomes all races and is a place where, in the warmth of the biblical figurehead of Noah, everyone can feel at home.

Its exterior takes the indigenous form of the Maori marae. The interior portrays all cultures including Welsh, Dutch, Cook Islands and Samoan. The stained-glass windows are of Victorian style.

The centre was the brainchild of Tokoroa High School's past and present headmasters, Tom Ryan and Geoff Burrige, and the Maori teacher at the school, Mrs Pia Tahuri, along with support from the community.

The carvings were born in the Rotorua Arts and Crafts Institute. The art work was created by art teacher, Mr Jim Wyley.

Months of hard work, involving the whole of Tokoroa's community, made the idea a reality on March 30. Paramount chief, Sir Hepi Te Heu Heu of Ngati Tuwharetoa, and tohunga Pateriki Rei of Te Arawa, performed the dawn ceremony, officially opening and blessing the centre. This dawn ceremony was a unique experience for most participants, even for elders of the Maori community.

Official Opening

The ceremony took place at dawn, for this is the time when Maoris believe that man is closest to God. On this particular dawn, emotions within were too strong and many tears of joy, pride and thanks were shed. Many of the workers involved from all races shed tears of sheer thanks that all was over and the complex was a reality.

However, with over 3000 guests in the morning and numbers growing as the day progressed, much work was still required feeding guests and entertaining them with items from various cultural groups.

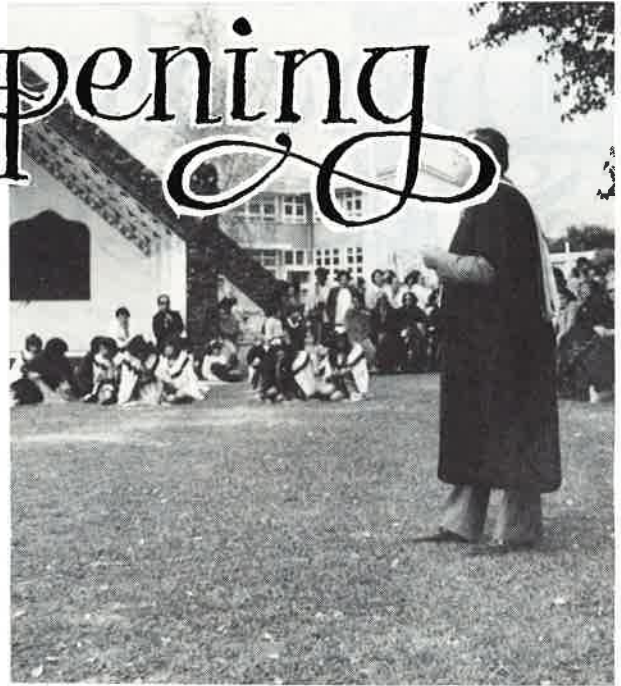

At 11am Education Minister Russell Marshall arrived to dedicate the centre. Formalities concluded; feasting began once more.

A slight sadness surrounded us all. The climax of hard, long work came to a close along with the daylight.

Now, the centre is a living place of learning and togetherness for all races who participate in using it, all under the umbrella of Noah - the common figure to one and all.

No reira, Kia ora, Kia orana, Tolofa Lava.
Koutou katoa. Ko tenei te tohu;
Me iwi kotahi tatou katoa
i roto i tenei ao weheurehe.

Dracula Spectacula

Tokoroa High School's major production for 1985 was Dracula Spectacula, a story about a young American school-teacher who takes her pupils on a field trip to Transylvania to meet up with the original Count Dracula.

This spoof, produced by Miss Harrison, on the exploits of Count Dracula and his band of vampires showed the enthusiasm and talent available in the school. Over 120 students were involved in the production, either in the technical side of props, stage-craft and lighting, or in the performance itself.

Maria Northcott's performance as the excruciating Countess Wraith left us in no doubt as to why the Count kept her locked up, while Jason Tuck and Karen Clatworthy gave fine performance as jovial hosts. Glenn Keaney remained creditably Irish throughout, while Nick Kleyn made a suitably debonnaire hero.

Lisa Etheridge also succeeded in keeping up a difficult role as Miss Nadia Naive. Robert Kilkolly gave an outstanding performance as a sinister and confident Dracula; but the hunchbacked Genghis, who actually broke his arm on stage and, in true performer's style, played on until the final curtain.

The production was enhanced by the effective use of lighting and props. Many thanks must be given to the dedicated staff and pupils involved in those areas.

CYCLING

November 1984 was a very active time for the school Cycling Team. We trained hard for the annual Lake Taupo Cyclethon. The event involved six to ten hours of hard cycling over the one hundred mile course. Twenty one of our twenty five team members and our coaches, Mr Bentley and Mr Tolovae, finished the gruelling ride raising $512 for Tamariki Special School.

We are currently in training for this year's event and our aim is to equal or better last year's sum for the benefit of Cargill's Junior I.H.C.

Earlier this year, on July, we entered two teams in the Bay Of Plenty Road Racing Championships. Our Boys' Team was placed fourth and the Girls' Team, competing for the first time, finished the course two minutes ahead of their estimated time.

In August our time trial competition against Forest View was enjoyed by all, although Forest View carried the day over the ten km course.

As this is my final year as Club Captain, I wish the 1986 team a successful year.

LEAVING HIS MARK...

Former T.H.S headmaster, Mr Rod MacMillan, returned to school to plant a tree; a "duty" he was unable to perform with other former headmasters at the school's jubilee in 1982.

FORM 4 CAMPS

Once again the fourth form ventured out of school on four day camps to Waihaha on the shores of Lake Taupo. Each class, along with three teachers, spent this time on activities such as rockclimbing, canoeing, orienteering, tramping, snorkeling and campcraft.

As well as having a taste of the activities, students had to prepare their own meals. What a mixture of food! Everyone did seem to eat well and appeared to enjoy what they were eating.

Rats and wind played havoc with some camps this year with the tents in particular taking a thrashing, hopefully these problems will not occur again.

FORM 6 and 7 CAMP

Senior camp basked in the autumn sun for four days at the Ngaruawahia Youth Camp.

One hundred and twenty-three sixth and seventh formers took advantage of the camp theme Communication. During the four days they were involved in a variety of communication exercises, some of which required them to communicate in solving practical problems, while others looked closely at personal communication skills.

All students spent time looking at the demands put on them if they were required to leave Tokoroa, and either flat or board somewhere else.

An important part of any camp is the menu. As in previous years the students took responsibility for this. Glynnis Erasmus and Daphne Ropiha headed a team of planners and cooks very successfully to complete the feeding of the masses with a very well prepared formal dinner on the Wednesday evening.

With the cooking being an integral part of camp activities, all students played a part in food preparations and cleaning up after meals. The over-all success in the food department indicated clearly how well students respond to the demands of such tasks.

Despite the interruption to normal schooling the senior camp provides an extension of student growth that is not possible otherwise. The over-all success of this camp provides encouragement for senior camps to continue as an integral part of student growth.

BRASS BAND

Bursts of sound can still be heard early at 8 a.m. every school morning. The Tokoroa High School Brass Band, consisting of many intermediate pupils, has improved tremendously over the past year. Mr Noel Saunders, our talented band master, is constantly surprised at sudden moments of perfection - almost as surprised as we are ourselves.

With visits to the two intermediates and our recent trip to Hamilton, I can say that the year with the band has been a successful one. We might not be able to "play good", but boy, can we play loud!

By Vicki Wolfe

Under the baton of Mr Saunders, the brass band performs at the opening of Te Whanau a Noa.

Tracey Steele

Tracey Steele has made a name for herself in cross-country and road-racing events this year. She was first in the road-race and second in the cross-country event at the Waikato Championships. She is currently ranked the 12th junior woman in N.Z. in road-racing.

Jonathan Kay

Jonathan Kay managed again to win the semi-final of the Student Mastermind Competition. He finished second equal; scoring 14 points in three minutes of questioning and bettering his last year's effort. Jonathan thanks all who assisted him.

Making Sum Think Happen

This year, 51 Tokoroa High School Students launched themselves into the big league by entering the Australian Mathematics Competition (along with 300,000 others from Australasia and the Pacific!).

It's all very well to guess the right answer, but in this competition you lose marks for every wrong answer, so it's fairly easy to go down the tube.

The results were excellent, with Ian McDonald of form 5 getting a cash prize (only one student in every 300 who enters gets into this league!).

WHO got all the awards?

Seniors Distinction Certificates to Jonathan Kay, William Munro.

Credits to Brent Nilsen and Andrew Phayer.

Intermediates Distinction: to Terry Ross, Deborah McCloskey and Craig Malins.

Credits to Simon Vannini, Darren Coneybear, David Farrar, Jason Forrest, Robert McDonald, Greg Coulter, Diana Callaghan, Brendon Green, Caltin Wyley, Sharee Ryan and Hayley McDonald.

Juniors Distinction: to Shane Inversen, James McGregor, Christopher Robertson, Tracy Mears, Mattias Johnson, Brendon Mishchewski, and Jason Vannini.

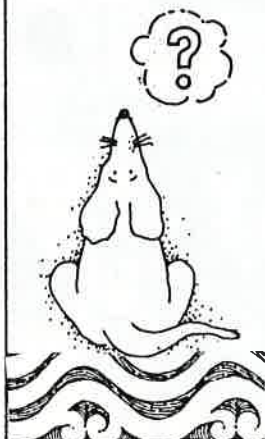

Credits to Neil Montgomery, Wendy Putt and Dijon Wilson.

Try a problem yourself:

Suppose the numbers from 1 to 30 are arranged in consecutive order. How many different pairs of numbers may be selected if there are at least three numbers between the chosen numbers?

We look forward to seeing a few more lining up at the posts next year.

RUGBY

The 1985 season has been very successful for the Tokoroa High School first XV. The team, led well by captain Aaron Ashby and vice-captain Derek Renata, won 12 out of 17 games, all against tough opposition. Some of the season's highlights were the beating of Porirua College for the first time in 8 years and the 11-9 victory over arch-rivals Forest View.

The second XV had mixed luck this season. We had many narrow losses and more than our fair share of draws. Some highlights were with the wins against Porirua and Forest View. Strong driving forward play and deep penetrating back line moves were a strong feature and many promising opposition moves were foiled by our aggressive, hard tackling.

BASKETBALL

This year has seen a dramatic increase in popularity for the sport. We now have four Junior and two Senior teams. Our Junior teams took part in a Minor League competition held on Thursdays after school.

The Fourteen years and Under Boys' Team, the Under Sixteen Girls' Team and the Under Sixteen Boys' Team competed in a tournament in Taupo where the Fourteen years and Under Boys' Team were undefeated and brought back a trophy. The Under Sixteen Boys' Team came third.

On the home front the Senior Boys started their winning streak by defeating the teachers 66 - 37 and, despite the loss of two highly skilled players, went on to defeat Forest View 36 to 17.

I would like to wish the up and coming juniors luck for next year and I hope the interest and support shown this year continues to grow. Thanks to Mrs Hikuroa, Miss Mears and Miss Shedlock for their help.

1985 has again proved to be an excellent year with the club at full membership. We have 46 members who range in abilities from those learning how to paddle a kayak to those competing at national level.

With the purchase of two specialist down-river boats, and the donation of a slalom kayak, we now have eight canoes in our fleet. During the year practices have been held in the school with skills work and challenging games of water polo. Other practices were held on the Mangakino Stream, and on the Tarawera River at Kawerau. Mangakino Stream was the white water that many of the club members had been on, and many of them can now tackle it, and stay up the right way from start to finish.

Tākorua High School was well represented by 13 students in the 1985 National at Kawerau, where 36 schools participated. The highlights of the competition were a third place in the Junior Girls (Michelle Gatenby) down-river race and another third in the Junior Boys' teams event. This team comprised Horst Mieke, Gavin Livingston and Teariki Pakutoa.

Next year we will have a very experienced team but we assure all readers that we do not propose to tackle the Huka Falls as two of our visiting instructors: Andrew Rees and Mike Allison did recently. We owe our thanks to them and to Mr Bentley for his work and commitment to the club, to our Lifeguards Mr Lloyd and Mr Tolovae, and to the many parents that helped us with transport.

SAILING

Earlier this year a school sailing team was formed to compete in the New Zealand Inter-Secondary School Yachting Competition. Mr Depree organised the team and we competed in the Taupo Regional Contest against Taupo and Turangi Schools. The team chosen was: Neil McConnon, Catrina MacLennan, Brett de Quastinent, David Henstock, Nick Klyen and Paul Henstock.

Each team sailed three Sunbursts with two members per boat. During the five races on the first day, rough weather caused several boats to capsize. We had mixed success with Catrina and Neil getting second, David and Brett a first and Paul and Nick a first. After the day's sailing the team was third overall.

On the second day the wind was quite strong and only the two races were sailed. The team sailed extremely well with David and Brett gaining a first in the first race, and Paul and Nick a first in the second race. This improved our team placing overall to second, behind Tauhara High School.

The competition was thoroughly enjoyed by all and we were extremely happy with second place.

SOFTBALL

The 1985 season was a very successful one for the Senior Boys' Softball team. It earned the best competition game record ever for a Tokoroa High team.

The A Team, a very experienced and disciplined side, gained many wins. Coached by Peggy "Hannibal" Shaw, who demanded nothing but the very best, managed by Ray "Murdoch" Mennink and captained by "Mr T", Tiki Tuapou, the team went on to represent South Waikato and claim the Central North Island Championships, this automatically qualified the team to play in the National Finals held in Lower Hutt earlier this year. Unfortunately their performance was marred by the absence of Ace pitcher Laurence Little and third baseman Poko Mataiti, but it's good to know that Tokoroa High School Softball is of National Standard.

Tokoroa High School also fielded strong teams in the Junior Competition held every Saturday at James Higgins' Park. Our boys' team, coached and managed by Ray Mennink and captained by Shane "Ike" Dick, dominated the competition. Overall a very good year for our school softball.

Both the boys' and girls' softball team won their respective Midland championships. The boys went on to win the Central North Island championships, and eventually were sixth at the national championships in Wellington.

This year's Senior Girls Softball team was full of young, very talented up and coming players. This was a year where all members gained experience and had the chance to mature both in skill and attitude.

The first game against Forest View was excellently played despite a shaky start and the fact that they had not played together before, did not seem to be a disadvantage, as all players worked together to gain their well deserved victory over the rival college. Outstanding players in this game were Regina Sheck and Angela Campbell.

Winning this game qualified the girls to participate in the Bay Of Plenty Secondary Schools Softball Tournament which was held in Whakatane. The girls came up against more skilled and experience teams however they played all games in good spirit and sportsmanship, all players giving their best for themselves and their fellow team mates. Although no prizes were brought back the experience gained will be valuable to the team's future success.

Thanks must go to the coach of the girls team, Mrs Lala Jones, for without her experience, skill and dedication the girls would not been successful as they were

HOCKEY

Two teams were entered in the Piako Schoolboys' competition this season with first XI players being divided between the two teams to help the younger players develop the skills needed to play constructive hockey. Both teams gained first place in their respective grades giving Tokoroa High School a clean sweep of schoolboy hockey titles. The full first XI competed in the Piako Senior Mens Competition. Although much smaller and less experienced than most of the mens' teams our skill perseverance and teamwork gained us third place out of eleven teams in the first round. The team was also the only team to defeat eventual winners, Forestland; their first loss for two seasons. Although fairing a little worse in the championship round, the first XI was in top form for the tournament and boys' hockey once again had a very successful season.

By A Dommerholt

The Girls' Hockey squad initially lacked numbers but by the middle of the season we were able to field two complete teams with reserves.

The "A" team, although it had many younger players, proved to be both skilled and fielded with vigorous spirit. The nature of this 'spirit' caused some conflict with our opponents from time to time. On the whole, the "A"'s had a successful season. The game against Forest View was a 2-all draw. Our last game against Mt Roskill from Auckland, resulted in a fine 3-1 win to Tokoroa.

The "B"'s worked hard to get themselves into a "cracker" team by the end of the season. With so much potential within the school, we can look forward to future success.

The hard work, dedication and enthusiasm from the members of both teams is to be commended. Well done. girls.

CHAMPS

The Boys' National Hockey Tournament was played on Wellington's "Superturf" surface. This year's tournament was the school's most successful ever with the team being joint national champions. The team went through unbeaten with the best goal average of any of the twenty teams participating. Although individual skills were polished, results came through good team pattern and understanding as well as a strong desire to do well.

Congratulations

As part of an extension course, Dianna Callaghan, Jason Forrest and Craig Malins have been involved in learning how to use the school's video camera. They decided to make a film and enter it in the National; "Make a Movie" competition.

To the delight of everyone, especially their teachers, Mrs Whale and Mrs Sadler, these three won the competition.

Entitled "A Survivor", this documentary highlights the tragedies faced by victims of motor accidents and the readjustment necessary to face life afterwards. Star of the movie was a 21 year old motor-bike victim, John Cornelissen. Many community organisations contributed to the success of this film. The prize is a new video camera and accessories for Tokoroa High School.

LIBRARY

We've had a lot of librarians this year. Librarians do more than just shelving and desk work: they accession books, which means strengthening them and typing catalogue cards, and they get first choice of the books that have just been bought by the library. Librarians get a certificate if they work hard through the year.

The behaviour has been acceptable this year, but I am disappointed that students interfere with the catalogues and books.

I think that the Polynesian section will be a good idea, because we have a whole section on English literature, but little on Polynesian literature.

I have enjoyed working in the library and will be glad to come back next year.

The Cameroon's debut season proved to be a very successful one. After some gruelling competition we emerged as winners of the B Reserve grade and as joint winners of the Best Defence Cup.

Although some members of the team are moving to fresh fields it is hoped that their achievements may be continued in the future.

We would like to thank the school netball teams for their support and encouragement and wish them well for the coming future.

FORM 6 and 7

For some years now, all sixth and seventh formers have been timetabled into a General Studies programme for one period per week. Such programmes were primarily recreational in content.

For 1985, it was decided to extend the General Studies programme to include courses on matters relating to students' involvement in the wider world once they had left school, covering those many important aspects of living which are not dealt with in the standard academic curriculum.

In order to deal with these aspects a period of time was set aside when the normal timetable was suspended and a concentrated programme presented over a three day period on the 6th, 7th and 8th of August, with an additional one hour session on Politics and Government, featuring the local Member of Parliament, on 14 October.

The three day programme in August was divided into four parts:

1. A Careers' Day
2. Community Resources
3. Financial Management
4. Health and Fitness

Such a programme would not have been possible without the support of members of many community organisations and institutions in Tokoroa and from as far afield as Hamilton, Rotorua and Tauranga. Altogether, something over fifty people came to the school over the three days to present or participate in programmes. They represented organisations as diverse as the Police, the Heart Foundation, Family Planning, New Zealand Forest Products, various government departments, banks, tertiary educational institutions, employers, the Borough Council and the Women's Refuge. The School owes a very large debt of gratitude to all of these people for the time they spent with our students; it was their contribution that made the programme the great success it was. Another reason for the success of the programme was, undoubtedly the great efficiency of the staff who organised it.
